LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) - Nebraska residents will get a shot at hunting for a bull elk this year when an elk hunting tag is auctioned off at the Nebraska Big Game Society annual meeting and dinner.

The dinner will be held Thursday evening at Wilderness Ridge in Lincoln.

Other auction items include Canadian and Alaskan fishing trips and a lifetime hunting/fishing permit with habitat stamp.

There also will be discussions about bighorn sheep, elk and mountain lion populations, as well as 2013 projects.

Those interested in attending may contact Jon Thomas at 402-430-9191. Visit www.nebiggame.org for more information about the organization.
