(Chadrad Sports)- Just a day after the University of Nebraska president and it's chancellor released a statement of support for Athletic Director Bill Moos amid rumors of issues with alcohol, Moos spoke statewide on Sports Nightly on Wednesday.

Speaking on the rumors Moos said, "For every 100 that have the right approach and the right attitude, there's one or two that don't. it's unfortunate that they get that attention and we wanted to take that attention away from them as fast as we could."

Moos also stated that this would not cause him to make a lifestyle change saying, "I'm going to continue to be with people and if we have a cold beer here or there, a cup of coffee or a piece of pie, hey, that's me and I'm not going to change."
