(Neb.)- Crawford, Gordon-Rushville, Hay Springs Send Wrestlers To State

By: Jeremy Anderson Posted at: 02/10/2019 09:34 AM

(Chadrad Sports)- Hay Springs Bryce Running Hawk was the only wrestler to earn his way to the state tournament with a district title. Running Hawk took top honors at 182-lbs at the D-4 district meet in Sutherland.

Running Hawk will be joined by teammate Austin Anderson who came back through the consolation rounds at 113-lbs to finish 4th.

Crawford's Dennis Vogl is also off to Omaha, winning the 3rd place match at 132-lbs at the D-4 meet.

A pair of Gordon-Rushville Mustangs will be a part of the Class C state tournament field. Conor Halverson was runner-up at 160-lbs at the C-4 district in Broken Bow. Fellow Mustang Hayden Hoos came back through the consolation rounds to snag 3rd place at 152-lbs.

You can hear live coverage of state wrestling starting on Thursday on AM 610 KCSR, Chadrad.com, and the KCSR Radio App.
