SCOTTSBLUFF - The West swept the East in Saturday's 35th annual West Nebraska All Star Volleyball Game and 41st annual Football Game in Scottsbluff.

The volleyball game at WNCC's Cougar Palace is best of 5 with all 5 sets always played, even if the match has been decided earlier - and the 5th wasn't needed this year as the West dominated in 4.

The West won the opener 25-20 and the 2nd set 25-14. The East stayed in the contest with a narrow 29-27 win in Set 3, but the West dominated the 4th by the same 25-14 score as Set 2 to claim the victory before winning the meaningless 5th set 15-8.

Alliance High graduate and future Wyoming Cowgirl player Emersen Cyza was named West MVP Addison Johnson was the East MVP.

The All-Star Football Game was a low-scoring affair dominated by defense and highlighted by turnovers in a 6-0 victory by the West

The lone score came in the 2nd quarter on a touchdown pass from an Arik Doty of Sidney to West MVP Lucas Paloucek of Ogallala.
