(Chadrad Sports)- The Chadron First National Bank North Platte Junior and Senior Nationals picked up a sweep of Sidney on Wednesday night, taking the Juniors game 6-1, and winning the Seniors contest 13-6.

Dawson Dunbar worked five innings on the mound for the Junior Nats, collecting seven strikeouts in picking up the win. Xander Provance tallied a pair of RBI's on the night.

The Junior Nationals hit the road this weekend to the B&C Steel Tournament in Gering on Saturday and Sunday, facing off with Ft. Morgan, CO. and Casper, WY on Saturday before finishing pool play with Gordon on Sunday.

The Senior Nationals had to dig in for their second win over Sidney in four days with a come from behind effort. Colton Olson had the hot bat recording a triple and a double while Ben Rust took the win on the mound.

Before the weekend, both the Chadron Seniors and Juniors hit the road to Alliance tonight to face the Spartans with first pitch coming at 5:00 PM for the Juniors game.
