At DOVES, we envision:

- a community free of sexual, domestic, and dating violence;
- a community that fosters healthy sexuality; and
- a community where every person feels safe and expects healthy relationships.

Our mission is to ensure our empowerment-based and strengths-centered services are available and accessible to anyone who has experienced or been affected by sexual, domestic and dating violence.

The DOVES Program prohibits discrimination in all its programs, services, and activities. Services will not be denied to victims of sexual, domestic, or dating violence based on race, sex, gender identity, or gender expression, perceived or actual sexual orientation, age, color, religion, marital status, national origin, disability, socio-economic status, health status, HIV status, employment status, immigration status, or geographic location.
